The President General's Message

Dear Compatriots:

Being elected President General of the National Society at the 106th Annual Congress is certainly one of the high points of my life. Having served in many offices over the years, I feel properly prepared for my term.

I have no sophisticated program for my year. However, everything possible will be done to instill enthusiasm in the many Committees we have. When the year is over, I hope every Committee Chairman will be able to say, "I did my very best and as a result our great Society has benefited." The time to set goals for your committee is now. Our committees in many cases are large, which is good, because you have more enthusiastic Compatriots to help attain the goals you as Chairmen have set. The potential of committee members in our Society is unparalleled. These men are well educated, have had most honorable and distinguished careers. Most are retired and are looking for new challenges. Mr. Chairman, put them to work; they are the cream of the crop!

I am interested in all of our Committees and their growth and progress. However, this year I am going to put special emphasis on membership. Our entire Society is dependent on membership growth, membership retention and membership reinstatement. The two committees directly responsible for our success here are the Membership Committee and the Task Force on Membership Retention and Reinstatement.

All of us are members of these two important committees this year. Each and everyone of us should have a supply of applications and the pamphlets which offer instructions for filling out applications properly. We are all guilty of not bringing new Compatriots into our local Chapter and the National Society. We are guilty of not asking people we associate with everyday to join our ranks. We are all guilty, but do not feel bad; it is simply human nature. However, we can and will change this year.

Our membership is now about 26,000. If each one of us brought in one new member, during the year, we would be 52,000 strong. We are an intelligent, educated and talented Society of men. The time has come to put these great qualities to work. The way to do it is to become enthused and aggressive.

We are a proud Society with a rich heritage. Many of our forefathers paid the supreme sacrifice. Tell this to your brothers, cousins, neighbors and associates in the work place.

I am most grateful to all of my fellow Compatriots for their support in the past - and especially this year in San Antonio. I am going to do my best for our Society. I appreciate your continued and generous support.

Best Regards,

Reon G. Hillegass, Jr.
President General

The PG and his wife were participants in the wreath laying ceremony in front of the Alamo, one of the highlights of the 106th Annual Congress.

Retiring PG William C. Gist presented newly elected PG Hillegass with the official badge of office (as depicted above this message).

Congress activities on Sunday morning were highlighted by a solemn program at the historic Alamo to salute those brave men who perished there during the devastating battle with Mexican forces in 1836. LEFT: The SAR Combined Color Guard, consisting of units from 16 State Societies, led a parade of attendees

Successful Congress Staged In Texas

When the final tally was made of attendees at the 106th Annual Congress this past June in San Antonio, records showed that 335 Compatriots were registered – 328 of them official delegates – and 218 guests were on hand. This total was well above the average of similar gatherings in recent years.

The Texas Society Congress Planning Committee, under the able chairmanship of Billy E. Hightower, did a highly commendable job of organizing a wide array of business and social programs. Working with him was Maryland Compatriot Barrett McKown, Chairman of the National Congress Planning Committee.

Elected President General was Reon G. Hillegass, a Past President of the Virginia Society who was completing a term as Secretary General. Prior to that he had been Treasurer General for three years and Vice-President General for the Mid-Atlantic District. A full slate of other officers was also elected; three posts were contested, thus requiring a run-off election as reported in the Congress Minutes elsewhere in this issue of the magazine.

PG Hillegass appointed the following members to the Executive Committee: retiring President General William C. Gist, KYSSAR; Howard F. Horne, Jr., DESSAR; Lawrence Loker, MOSSAR;

George W. Orton, AZSSAR; and Duane T. Sargisson, MASSAR. All have been active for many years at all levels of our Society. Rounding out the committee membership are the PG; Secretary General Carl K. Hoffmann, FLSSAR; Treasurer General Russell D. Page, ILSSAR; and Chancellor General McCarthy DeMere, TNSSAR.

Also reported in this issue are the composition of National Committees and an updated, complete Directory of the General Officers and key State Society and Chapter Officers – plus accounts of every major Congress Activity from business sessions, Memorial Service and the presentation of a wide range of awards.

Mrs. Dora Eaton Kemper (right) completed her remarks, she surprised President General William C. Gist by presenting him the DAR Medal of Honor in recognition of his close cooperation with our sister Society.

Right in the middle of the first business session, "George Washington" (Kes Kesler of the Kansas Society) brought a message concerning contributions to the Society's George Washington Endowment Funds.

Two important awards were presented during the closing banquet of the Congress. On left President General William C. Gist awarded the Gold Good Citizenship Medal to Compatriot Donald J. Pennell in recognition of his superb efforts in organizing and conducting the Netherlands tour (see pages 12-14). The Law Enforcement Commendation Medal was offered to San Antonio Police Officer Joseph N. Martinez, as Law Enforcement Committee Chairman Philip B. Carr observed. With the Police Department for 35 years, he is known among the rank and file for his professionalism.

Compatriot Hero Recognized

A surprise ending to the evening was special recognition given to Texas Society Compatriot Arthur Conklin, who was serving aboard the U.S.S. Stark when she was hit by French Exocet anti-ship missiles and set on fire during the Iraqi attack on May 17, 1987 (this is the ship after which the U.S.S. Stark Memorial Award is named). While he was Damage Control Assistant, about two-thirds of the vessel was damaged/destroyed, with only the main engineering spaces escaping damage. Thirty-seven crew members (out of 167) were killed and 22 others were seriously injured.

Through the special efforts of the crew, the fires were extinguished, the holes patched and the ship saved. This took over two days and was followed by an extensive 18-month yard period. Compatriot Conklin, at the time a Lieutenant, was featured on the cover of Parade Magazine as "The man who saved the Stark." Now a resident of San Antonio, he is employed as a plant manager at a manufacturing firm.

The U.S.S. Stark Award is named for the ship that was hit by a missile while on duty near Iraq in 1987. PG Gist recognized Texas Society Compatriot Arthur Conklin for the part he played in saving the heavily damaged vessel.

Outstanding Youths Star At Congress

Our Society's dedication to furthering programs for youths across the nation was very evident at the 106th Annual Congress in San Antonio. It was then that months of hard work at the Chapter and State levels came to fruition for the Eagle Scout Scholarship Competition, the George S. and Stella M. Knight Essay Contest and the Joseph S. Rumbaugh Historical Oration Contest.

The Wisconsin Society walked off with two top honors when Eagle Scout Mark A. Hendrickx was awarded the $5,000 scholarship and Justin Jaeck was declared as having composed the best essay to capture the $2,000 prize. Following an exciting run-off of the Oration Contest, John Barry Dunlap of Maryland was named the winner, he received a check for $2,000.

Justin Jaeck, national winner of the Essay Contest, presented his manuscript during the Wisconsin Society's Annual Meeting in May. Immediate Past President of the C.A.R. Wisconsin Society, he was Salutatorian in his graduating class this spring. Last year he was awarded the Bronze Eagle Trophy by the Wisconsin Society for being named top Eagle Scout.

The runner-up in the Eagle Scout competition was Albert R. Leatherman of West Virginia. He was to be presented a check for $1,000 during a local SAR meeting. Chairing this vital program has been Texas Society Compatriot Jackson L. Grady.

Col. Charles S. Wingate, Chairman of the Essay Contest, reported that 21 State Societies participated with over 1,500 entries being received and judged. The second place winner was Joseph Thomas Leslie, a student from Louisiana, while Jaclyn M. Dahlang of Washington State came in third; they were awarded $1,000 and $500, respectively.

Fourteen State Societies fielded orations contestants, as shown in an accompanying photo. Their topics ranged from George Washington at Valley Forge to Patrick Henry and Thomas Paine.

As space permits in future issues of the magazine, the winning essay and oration will be reproduced, as will the essay submitted by Mr. Hendrickx.

President General William C. Gist (second from left) posed at the Congress with those Compatriots most responsible for financing prizes given to winners of competitions among youths (from left): George S. Knight, Joseph S. Rumbaugh and Arthur M. King. Within the past two years or so Knight and Rumbaugh each contributed $100,000 to fund the Essay and Oration Contests, respectively. Former President General King was instrumental in launching the Eagle Scout Scholarship Program in the early 1980's; since then he has donated substantial funds to help sustain this important project.

Foundation Board Announces Changes

Compatriot Vance continues as a member of the Board in accordance with Foundation Bylaws.

At the same time Texas Society Compatriot Frank A. Gibson was elected Treasurer to replace Henry R. Maxey, who had died in April. New to the Board, Gibson is a retired C.P.A. who holds a Compatriot Frank A. Gibson.

BBA Degree in Accounting from the University of Texas. In addition to a successful business career, he served four years as Secretary-Treasurer of the Texas Society and is currently Treasurer.

Such funds are to be used primarily for capital improvements, but will also be employed to finance an array of programs important in carrying out the patriotic and educational goals of the Society. The Foundation is prepared to accept a range of contributions that include cash, real and personal property, charitable remainder trusts and property through planned giving.

Official SAR Tour To Spain Planned

Plans are now being developed for an official SAR visit to Spain during May, 1997 to honor that nation's government for their invaluable assistance to our country during the Revolutionary War. Indications of interest in joining the trip group are desired - now.

To be led by President General Reon G. Hillegrass, the trip is being planned by Michigan Society Compatriot Donald J. Pennell, who was responsible for the sojourn earlier this year to the Netherlands (see complete report starting on page 12).

Compatriot Pennell states that a suitable presentation on behalf of the National Society will be offered to a high-ranking government officer. Also included in the nine or ten night trip will be visits to Madrid, Toledo, Barcelona, Andorra and either Granada or Seville. The total cost per person is projected to be about $2,500.

The group will be limited to 35 people, with Compatriots, wives and widows cordially invited to participate. If you are seriously interested in being a part of this historic program, please notify Executive Director Robert A. Lentz at National Headquarters - now. Coverage

No one wants to think about the time that they will not be able to take care of themselves. Yet the startling fact is that 4 out of 10 Americans under age 65 will require nursing home care at some point in their lives.

Whether you're looking ahead for coverage for yourself or for a family member, you will find a wide range of options available under the National Society SAR Long Term Care Nursing Home Plan.

HERE ARE TWO IMPORTANT REASONS WHY YOU SHOULD ACT TODAY:

1. Since your acceptance in the Plan is based on your health when you apply, the better your health now, the better your chance of being accepted. A future health condition could make you ineligible at a time when you really need the protection.

2. Your rates are based on your age at time of application and do not increase as you become older. You can save a substantial amount over your lifetime by taking out this coverage now at the lower rates for persons at your present age.

1996-97 Membership Goals Revealed

By FPG James R. Westkale, Membership Chairman

President General Reon G. Hillegass has reiterated his strong support of membership growth for 1996-97. With that emphasis in mind, he has agreed to new goals for the year that produce a net increase of 1,500.

The ending report as of March 31, 1996 was a net of 24,276. This makes our goal for the current year to reach a total by March 31, 1997 of 25,776. The following data show the net membership increase for each State Society by Vice-President General Districts. It is absolutely essential for VPGs and State Presidents to make membership a priority if we are to show real growth. Remember - new applications approved plus reinstatements less deceased and drops for non-payment of dues give the net membership result.

Here Are The Goals

- New England District: 88 (ME, 9; NH, 8; VT, 3; MA, 25; RI, 10; CT, 33).
- North Atlantic District: 84 (NY, 54; NJ, 30).
- Mid-Atlantic District: 288 (PA, 122; DE, 19; MD, 44; DC, 17; VA, 86).
- South Atlantic District: 232 (NC, 29; SC, 39; GA, 44; FL, 116).
- Southern District: 113 (AL, 30; MS, 17; LA, 36; TN, 30).
- Central District: 183 (WV, 18; OH, 77; IN, 40; KY, 48).
- Great Lakes District: 82 (MI, 18; WI, 10; IL, 54).
- North Central District: 26 (MN, 7; DA, 3; IA, 11; NE, 5).

- South Central District: 241 (MO, 31; KS, 29; AR, 17; OK, 13; TX, 151).
- Rocky Mountain District: 47 (AZ, 24; CO, 13; NM, 10).
- Intermountain District: 15 (ID, 4; MT, 2; UT, 6; WY, 3).
- Western District: 80 (CA, 71; NV, 5; HI, 4).
- Pacific District: 24 (WA, 12; OR, 11; AK, 1).

The above figures total 1,503 due to rounding out of net increases (6.2%). Chapters which make a net increase of 6.2% must be certified by the State President by May 15, 1997 to be eligible for a Certificate of Achievement at new year's awards ceremony during the 107th Annual Congress in Baltimore.

Valuable Documents Offered

The Membership Committee recommends that each new officer at the State Society and Chapter levels be furnished: (1) A set of "Membership Guides"; and (2) A copy of the Workshop Outline" to train persons for membership recruitment. These documents have been sent to or purchased by most states. They should be reproduced and distributed. And be sure to let our Committee know should you still need them.

This year the Committee will look at how Chapters can be assisted by the State Society to achieve membership goals as itemized above. The base of the achievement pyramid is the Chapter. When Chapters make the goal, the State Society, District and National Society all benefit.

SAR Trip In May Salutes Netherlands

By MISSAR Compatriot Donald J. Pennell, Trip Organizer and SAR Ambassador

From May 3 to May 15, President General William C. Gist, Jr. led an SAR tour of the Netherlands and Switzerland, with side trips to Belgium and Germany. Twenty-one Compatriots and wives from the 13 states joined him.

Although the primary objective of the tour was to honor the Netherlands for their assistance during our Revolutionary War, it also included a visit to commend the Switzerland Society on their revitalization and to attend their Annual Meeting.

The tour had many "firsts." The tour traveled the most miles (average of 10,206), the most days (12), and met with the highest ranking government official of any tour in the history of NSSAR. It was the first such tour to have the Color Guard carry the "Betsy Ross" Flag; an Amsterdam newspaper noted this flag and featured it prominently in their photo.

Tour Reason Traces To 1776

Before 1775, the Netherlands had a substantial trading business operating from their island of St. Eustatius in the Caribbean (next to St. Kitts). Although the Netherlands was a neutral nation in the American Revolution, the merchants continued to trade with the U.S. providing badly needed gunpowder, lead, clothing and other military provisions. Without these items, it is probable that the U.S. would not have been able to survive the first year of the war. In 1776, a U.S. Navy Warship sailed into the harbor of St. Eustatius and their cannons were fired in reply to the U.S. salute. It was the beginning of an unbelievable series of events that were factors in our winning the Revolutionary War.

The salute, ordered by Governor Johannes de Graaff, was in recognition of another country's flag. It was the first salute in the history of the world to officially recognize the United States as an independent nation, and honored the Andrew Doria, U.S. Brig-of-War commanded by Capt. Isiah Robinson. This recognition of the U.S. was to have worldwide repercussions.

Governor de Graaff had placed himself and the island in a precarious position as the Netherlands were a neutral nation and the British were attempting to blockade the island to stop the flow of war materials. During this period, the British navy captured numerous French and Spanish merchant vessels trying to supply St. Eustatius as well as dozens of U.S. ships. And in Amsterdam British Ambassador Sir Joseph Yorke was making serious threatening remarks about the failure of the Dutch to halt this trade. Eventually, the Dutch government, in order to placate the English, recalled Governor de Graaff. However, this was but a charade and the Governor was returned without censure, but without published official approval of his actions. Eventually the Netherlands paid heavily for their position as England declared war on the Dutch.

Meanwhile the British, who were already at war with France, learned that France's Admiral deGrasse had set sail for the Caribbean. The British immediately ordered Admiral Sir George Rodney and Admiral Sir Samuel Hood with their fleets to the Caribbean to protect their holdings in the various islands and to attack the French fleet. Soon after arriving in the West Indies, on February 3, 1781 Admiral Rodney sailed into the harbor of St. Eustatius (evidently under French Flags) and quickly captured St. Eustatius which wasn't aware that war had been declared. Rodney proceeded to strip all the warehouses and private dwellings including 6,900 hogshead of tobacco belonging to Virginia merchants. They also destroyed a majority of the buildings leaving the inhabitants to shift for themselves. Admiral Rodney brought 30 merchant ships with him to carry the booty back to England under heavy naval escort. However, on return to England over 22 were captured by the French, some were sunk and a couple managed to limp to Ireland, depriving Admiral Rodney of the biggest prize money of his lifetime.

During this period, Admiral deGrasse, who had sailed to the West Indies causing serious disruption and damage to the British fleets, soon sailed to Yorktown to fulfill his commitment to assist the U.S. in the Revolutionary War. But Rodney, in his desire to strip St. Eustatius and to protect other British islands from the French, delayed in chasing deGrasse, ignoring his primary orders to attack the French fleet. By the time Rodney finally arrived off the Virginia coast, he found Admiral deGrasse firmly in control and he sailed away without any attempt to challenge him. Thus, St. Eustatius was a contributing factor to the British loss of the Revolutionary War.

Florida Compatriot Involved

Another important action should be noted. In 1939 President Franklin D. Roosevelt ordered a bronze plaque to be placed on the island of St. Eustatius which read: "In Commemoration of the salute of the flag of the United States fired in this fort November 16, 1776, by order of Johannes de Graaff, Governor of St. Eustatius, in reply to a national gun fired by the U.S. Brig of War Andrew Doria - Here the sovereignty of the United States of America was first formally acknowledged to a national vessel by a foreign official."

That plaque was carried by Capt. Grover S. Higgenbotham, USN (Ret) and a member of the Naples Chapter, Florida Society; he was graduated from the U.S. Naval Academy in 1935. Capt. Higgenbotham, then a Lt.-Junior Grade aboard the Battleship Wyoming, delivered the plaque. He carried the plaque down the ship's ladder to a motor launch, but had two buoys attached to the plaque so it would float in case he dropped it in the ocean. Lt. Higgenbotham also attended the presentation that was conducted by Capt. Robertson of the Wyoming.

It was a real thrill for Compatriots and guests alike to visit the United States Embassy at The Hague.

Top NSSAR Medals Presented

On the morning of May 9th in the city of The Hague, the tour was joined by the United Kingdom Society's Secretary, the Switzerland Society's President and William P. Pope, a member of the Virginia Society, who has just been assigned to the Hague's American Embassy as Deputy

Following the reception, President General Gist presented a Silver Good Citizenship Medal to U.S. Ambassador K. Terry Dornbush, P.G. Gist was followed by Ambassador Pennell who expressed his appreciation of the great assistance provided by several members of the Ambassador's staff. In Ambassador Dornbush's acceptance speech he stated that: "the 'First Salute' is today an historic symbol of the deep friendship between the U.S. and the Netherlands, and that later on that day the NSSAR will remind the Dutch people of the important role their country played in the history of the American people." He concluded by "giving additional thanks to Mr. Gist and Mr. Pennell for this "commendable act."

Following the presentation, the tour group walked to the Netherlands' Parliament Buildings, where President General Gist presented the Gold Good Citizenship Medal to Mr. Tjeenk Willink, Chairman of the First Chamber of the States General (their "Congress"). U.S. Ambassador Dornbush, Mr. Tjeenk Willink, President General Gist, and Ambassador Pennell were seated at the speakers table.

United States Ambassador K. Terry Dornbush to the Netherlands, was presented the Silver Good Citizenship Medal by PG Gist, while Donald J. Pennell observed. The ceremony took place at The Hague

U.S. Senate or the British House of Lords and has significantly more power than the Second Chamber. The Netherlands did not have a king or queen until 1815; in 1776 the States General was ruled by the Chairman. In addition they didn't have a First and Second Chamber at that time, so Chairman Tjeenk Willink who was presented the medal was the equivalent to the Chairmen who ruled in 1776.

Location Steeped In History

The presentation took place in the Assembly Room of the First Chamber which was the same room where the States General met with the recalled Governor of St. Eustatius to discuss the possibility of disciplining him. It was also the same room that the States General approved the ten million dollar loan to the U.S. in 1781. It was the first time Ambassador Dornbush or any of his staff had been in any of the rooms of the First Chamber.

Chairman Willink gave a lengthy speech thanking the Society for the medal, and stating that: "In recent decades the Netherlands has often been described as 'America's most loyal ally.' This has also been how many Dutch people have seen their country, a self-image which has not been, and is still not, contradicted by the United States."

He also said: "While I am grateful for this mark of honour, it is with some unease that I stand before you today - It is because the Dutch have difficulty in coming to terms with their own past. Last year, for example, we did not feel entirely comfortable with the 50th celebration of our own liberation in May 1945. Not, of course, because we are not grateful for this liberation, for which mainly young Americans made great sacrifices and in some cases paid with their lives - No, it is because we have difficulty with our own contribution to history. How heroic, determined and merciful were we ourselves during the war years? - When I see how your National Society of the Sons of the American Revolution commemorates the foundings of your very powerful country, I realize only too well the need for modesty."

Ambassador Pennell made the acknowledgement to the Chairman's remarks and concluded the ceremony. Mr. Tjeenk Willink then conducted a tour of the Parliament Buildings which was followed by a reception.

In the evening a reception sponsored by the NSSAR was held in Voorborg. This was followed by a dinner during which Ambassador Pennell presented Certificates of Appreciation to three members of the Ambassador's staff.

City of Maastricht Visited

Another significant presentation had taken place previously. On May 5th. President General Gist presented the Silver Good Citizenship Medal to Mr. T. Bovens, Deputy Mayor of Maastricht. Ambassador Pennell also presented certificates of Appreciation to two city officials. The presentation was held in the Theater Aan Het Vrijthof in Maastricht and was followed by a reception.

The city of Maastricht was selected to represent the "2nd level of Dutch government" for all of the Netherlands. Maastricht was chosen as it was the first Dutch city liberated in WWII, and the only city liberated by solely U.S. troops. The tour group stayed in the same hotel that the U.S. Army used for their headquarters in Maastricht, and was present on their National Holiday (Liberation Day) which honors the U.S. for their WWII sacrifices.

The following morning the tour visited the 65-acre Netherlands-American Military Cemetery in Margaraten where 8,301 headstones of Americans mark the burial of those who fought to liberate the Netherlands. In addition there is a large wall listing the names of an additional 1,722 who were missing in action.

Attend Events In Switzerland

Following the events in the Netherlands, the tour group flew to Geneva to honor the Switzerland Society, which had been dormant but was recently rejuvenated. That visit included a reception and dinner at the home of President Richard C. Owens, and a reception and dinner at their Annual Meeting. A Geneva newspaper had an article and photo about the NSSAR visit to Geneva.

The Swiss Society had also reactivated their annual debate between two of Geneva's prestigious private schools. It was held at the Ecole Internationale School of Geneva. The subject was the pros and cons of Federalism. The judges were P.G. Gist, Swiss SAR Count Denys Crapon de la Caprona and Ambassador Pennell as Chairman.

A summary of the places visited in the Netherlands includes tours of Maastricht, Leiden, Delft, Edam, Amsterdam, Lisse, Rotterdam; Zaandam, Volendam and Marken; visiting the North Sea, a 70-acre

tulip park, windmills, Rembrandt art museum, a flea market; witnessing a diamond cutting operation, Edam cheese making and Delft porcelain manufacturing; taking a night wine & cheese canal boat tour; and walking through Leiden where the Pilgrims stayed after being ejected from England and before they came to America.

President General Gist was pleased to offer this silver bowl award to the winning team of debaters at the United Nations Headquarters in Geneva, Switzerland. The Switzerland Society sponsors the event each year among students attending two local private schools.

In Switzerland the group toured Geneva, had a VIP tour of the United Nations and took a panoramic scenic train to Interlaken where President Gist was given a surprise 61st birthday party. They also rode a cable car - transferring three times, up to 10,000 feet arriving above the clouds and eating at a revolving restaurant - took a steamer across Lake Brienz to a wood-carving village; and finally a bus tour over the Alps and a tour of Lucerne and Zurich before flying back to Amsterdam for the flight back home.

HEADQUARTERS STAFF NOTES

FROM PG TO MERE DENTIST - Bill Gist returned to his dental practice on Monday after the Congress only to find that his staff had welcomed him back with a full 10-hour schedule. That's a whole lot of drilling. As Bill told his staff, "Thanks a lot. I guess this is back to the real world."

IN MEMORY - The next time you visit the National Headquarters, you will notice a new planting near the entrance ramp. It is a pink dogwood tree, planted in memory of Elizabeth Burks Gist, 1940-1995, NSSAR's First Lady (1995-96), from the Headquarters Staff.

GREAT COVERAGE - The 106th Congress at San Antonio received some great press coverage - a front-page story in the San Antonio Express-News and Eyewitness News TV footage during the wreath laying ceremony at the Alamo. John and Carol Grout (LASSAR) formed the PR team that deserves credit for the print and TV coverage. Mucho gracias, Grouts.

? DAYS TO CHRISTMAS - We don't know how many days, but we do know you should order your specially designed Christmas cards now by using the order blank in this issue. There was a limited quantity of cards printed which will probably sell out.

FYI CHRISTMAS - The Headquarters will be closed Dec. 24, 1996 through Jan. 1, 1997 due to holidays and vacations.

NO PROBLEM - Bob and Ginnie Weaver read about the SAR's National Headquarters in the San Antonio Express-News when we were holding our 106th Congress in their fair city. Two weeks later, while visiting Louisville, they dropped in on us. Unfortunately, the library air conditioner had just died. No problem for these visitors from San Antonio. "We're used to the heat," Bob said. Bob and Ginnie are serious genealogists. He's a retired U.S. Air Force officer and has been into family trees since 1945. No doubt, he's eligible for SAR. Ann Carrell presented him with the appropriate recruitment papers. (For members information, the air conditioner has since been replaced.)

ONLINE WITH SAR - Hopefully, the SAR Home Pages will attract inquiries from potential new members. Those Compatriots who are on-line can view the SAR Home Page at <http://www.sar.org>. This page and more have been under development for some time by Info Tech Comm Chair Carroll Collins (MDSSAR) and more recently by Donald Evans (VASSAR). Hopefully, the page will attract inquiries from potential new members. At least even State Societies have developed their own pages. It behooves us to have standardized pages that contain information consistent with the Bylaws, etc. Therefore, President General Reon G. Hillegass has directed all State Societies to clear their Home Pages with Collins, whose e-mail address is CARROLL.CO@JNT.COM.

WANTED - One Windsor Chair. The small desk in the Roddis Conference Room just begs for such a chair. If you have one to give, the Museum Board would greatly appreciate it.

Lineage Workshops Effort Gaining Momentum Among SARs, DARs Alike

By John F. Newell, Chairman, Lineage Research Workshops Committee

The Lineage Research Workshops Program, instituted about a year ago, has two important objectives: (1) Find men in your community who are qualified for SAR membership, and; (2) Help those interested in SAR to properly complete their applications.

Experience to date shows that successful workshops may be staged in varying degrees of size - from large to small - as indicated in a few case histories reported below. Most importantly, it is necessary to be knowledgeable about researching family lineage and completing applications.

A review of the program after its first year shows slow, but steady implementation by State Societies and Chapters. Here are a few examples that could well be adapted to your particular needs.

Charles T. Galbraith, President of the Empire State Society's 1st New York Continental Chapter, co-sponsored an all day workshop at the National Archives Northeast Division in New York City, with Archives personnel, DARs and other hereditary societies participating. Its purpose was to familiarize potential members with the admissions requirements of each organization represented. Attendees also had the opportunity to become familiar with the holdings of the Division's facility. A fee of $25 was charged.

John W. Smith, West Virginia Society President, conducted a one-day workshop jointly with a DAR Chapter Regent. Five men and 20 women attended, with each man interested in SAR membership. This was a "hands-on" session held at the James E. Morrow Library of Marshall University at Huntington.

Illinois Society Genealogist Charles B. Schweizer reported that the General George Rogers Clark Chapter conducted workshops in three communities to help attendees with family lineage and completing SAR applications. The number of students ranged from 12 to 27. Efforts resulted in six SAR applications. More workshops are planned in the fall.

Lowell E. Nichols, Sr. of the Indiana Society targeted Recreational Vehicle Rallies. He and his DAR wife held workshops at four such rallies in the state this spring, with more coming later in the summer.

Arizona Society Genealogist Charles Harrar and Registrar Kenneth Hales have been busy recruiting new SARs. At his country club, Compatriot Harrar obtained 17 potential SARs, while seven new members have been confirmed and about seven have pending applications. Compatriot Hales conducted two Genealogical Training Courses at a local Air Force Base.

Graham T. Smallwood, a noted genealogist and member of the District of Columbia Society, has been appointed to chair that Society's Workshops Committee. This approach to boosting membership fits well with their Constitution and Bylaws under "Recruiting, which shall be a look-out committee for securing accessions to the membership of the Society."

These descriptions indicate a variety of scenarios for Lineage Research Workshops and point to the fact that no matter how a prospective member is approached, ultimately two factors emerge to get his membership approved: (1) Lineage Research is necessary to determine his relationship to a Revolutionary War ancestor, and (2) The application for membership must be acceptable.

From the beginning of the Workshops Program it was envisioned that SAR and DAR could work effectively as a team, when appropriate, in this important endeavor. Presently, the DAR is focusing its attention to "in-house" workshops to train appropriate members of their Chapters how to complete acceptable application papers. This activity is coordinated with DAR State Societies by the eight DAR Division Vice Chairmen (named in the Winter Issue of The SAR Magazine).

Our 1996 set of four distinct designs was painstakingly crafted by a creative committee appointed by the President General. They are definitely one of a kind. And when they were first marketed at the 106th Annual Congress this past June in San Antonio, attendees liked what they saw and snapped up scores of boxes on the spot.

Each box offers six of each of the four designs, plus 24 envelopes, for a donation of only $20. Also included is the cost of handling and shipping. What a buy – especially when $10 of each donation may be tax deductible (discuss with your tax advisor)!

How will you be helping our Society's programs? All donations received, after expenses, will go toward the funding of a broad range of vital activities, in turn supporting our State Societies and Chapters.

About The Four Designs

GEORGE WASHINGTON ROOM AT SAR HEADQUARTERS is a remarkable adjunct to our Library in Louisville. It is patterned after Washington's study at Mount Vernon, Virginia. Available for researchers is one of the nation's finest resource collections relative to the Patriot.

GEORGE WASHINGTON'S SEAL RING is the most valuable possession of our Society. Owned and used by Washington, it has a setting of carnelian in which is incised the Washington Family crest.

GEORGE WASHINGTON KNEELING IN PRAYER is depicted in this magnificent 9-foot-tall bronze sculpture on the grounds of the Freedoms Foundation at Valley Forge, Pennsylvania. Nearby his Continental Army camped during the fateful Winter of 1777-78 of the Revolutionary War.

THE GEORGE WASHINGTON FAMILY is a handsome illustration on display at our Headquarters. It shows George and Martha Washington gathered with her grandchildren, George Washington Parke Custis and Eleanor Parke Custis who lived with the couple at Mount Vernon. The original painting is in the Mellon Collection in the National Gallery of Art, Washington, DC.

On the inside of each card is a similar description of the cover. The back panel contains information about the National Society's membership and objectives.

"New" U.S. History Standards Still Wrong!

"Who controls the past, controls the future; who controls the present controls the past." So wrote George Orwell in his 1984.

The original standards of the "Goals 2000" have been done away with and are gone. Some might believe that the war is over and victory is ours. But the struggle remains and we must ever remain alert for the "New Standards" are on the way.

How could such national standards ever have been created? Are they even desirable? Are national educational standards of any type something that America needs? Is there any danger that such standards could be "hijacked" by federal bureaucrats and extremists on either the left or right, who could use them to impose their notions of political correctness upon our children?

These standards have been created because of a powerful prevailing attitude among revisionist historians who teach that American history is the story of how white western Europeans exploited minorities and their struggle against that dominant power structure to the exclusion of all other factors.

Our System Fosters Diversity

One of the great hallmarks of the American educational system is that we have been able to maintain a great diversity in teaching. This is why, despite many complaints and faults, that we have the best university educational system in the world today. The proof of our success is the thousands who come here each year solely for the purpose of acquiring their education. So avoidance of a National Ministry of Education, as so many other countries have, with all of their rigid standards, has contributed to our success.

The Department of Education, under President Clinton, has stated that the adoption of the "Goals 2000" will not result in the loss of federal monies, nor result in the creation of an expanded federal role in education. But the Commonwealth of Virginia, which refused to accept "Goals 2000", has lost over $10 million dollars in the last year for refusing to accept them. One must conclude that "Goals 2000" is just another step in the continued reduction of the ability and rights of individual states to educate their youth.

This effort to establish federal controls on local education has not ended with history. The "Goals and Standards" for other subjects are being completed and are being attacked by authorities in those fields for much the same reasons that your Task Force has raised.

History Standards Still Wrong

The new standards have been released – and the "New History Standards" have got it all wrong again! The authors claim that all of us belong to a "Great Convergence" of Europeans, Africans and Native Americans.

Dr. Arthur E. Chapman, the author of this article, serves as Chairman of the Task Force to Preserve U.S. History. He is shown here as he delivered his report at the 106th Annual Congress.

In Section ERA 3: Revolution and the New Nation (1754-1820), on the very first page, p. 85 in the new standards, there are at least nine major errors.

FALSE but presented as FACT:

- 1) The American Revolution "called into question long-established social and political relationships – between master and slave, man and woman, upper class and lower class, officeholders and constituents, and even parent and child..."
- 2) "In studying the post-Revolutionary generation, students can understand how the embryo of the American two-party system took shape."
- 3) "...students should ponder why the Constitutional Convention sidetracked the movement to abolish slavery that had taken rise in the revolutionary era."

The student is able to:

- 4) "Compare the reasons why many white men and women and MOST (my emphasis) African Americans remained loyal to the British."

5) "Explain how African American leaders and African American institutions shaped free black communities..."

John Locke Was Right

John Locke wrote, "In the beginning all the world was America," for he believed that America would escape the very conditions of oppression that these new standards hail as our beginnings. Locke had America in mind when he first articulated the doctrine of rights, natural and inalienable, criticized slavery, defended women's right to inherit and other important aspects of what America was all about. But no sooner than this background to our Declaration of Independence is noted in these new standards that the focus turns to slavery. Then the students are asked to "show how the ideas that inspired the American Revolution influenced the 20th century revolutions in Mexico, Russia, China, Cuba, and Vietnam." That revolutions made in the name of Marxist-Leninism are cited as products of the American Revolution can only mean that students will have absolutely no grasp of the philosophical foundations of our Declaration of Independence and Constitutional Republic.

Compatriots, your Task Force will continue to work hard to keep you informed as to our progress in opposing these "Goals and Standards." We also wish to remind you that these standards, revised or not, are not consistent with the stated purpose of the SAR. Our Charter, granted by Congress, obligates us to perpetuate the memory of those who achieved our nation's independence.

The Task Force deliberated for some time over the development of suitable guidelines to help in our struggle to preserve United States History. The following suggestions are offered for inclusion in State Society and Chapter programs of action.

1. Establish State Task Forces to monitor their state education organizations to ensure that "revisionist" material does not creep into the school curriculum. Also to serve as legislative "watchdogs" to be aware of and ready to fend off attempts to engage in "Revisionist" efforts of revising the accurate teaching of U.S. History.
2. Establish Chapter Task Forces to monitor local education groups, including school boards, to ensure that "revisionist" material does not enter the school system.
3. Accentuate the positive in our Western culture. Be prepared to deal with what has been left out in any curricula.
4. State Societies should establish "Committees of Correspondence" with all other patriotic, historical, and educational organizations to ensure that "no stone has been left unturned."
5. Each State Society and Chapter should develop an Action Plan that ensures that we are ever vigilant on this matter.
6. Develop a process of recognizing schools and teachers that are doing good work in the teaching of U.S. History.
7. Invite an outstanding teacher to be the guest at a luncheon or dinner and then recognize their efforts as an outstanding teacher. (The History Committee is in the process of developing an award at this time.)
8. Select, with the help of your outstanding teacher, an outstanding student of history.
9. Only speak with confidence on what you know; don't defend the unfamiliar or unknown.
10. NEVER ALLOW YOURSELF TO BECOME NEGATIVE! Also remain positive on this subject and do not do anything that reflects adversely upon the NSSAR or yourself.

Memorial Service Honors Compatriots

Nearly 600 Compatriots who were called to eternal rest over the previous year were honored during the traditional Memorial Service held on the Sunday prior to the official start of the 106th Annual Congress in San Antonio. The site was the historic Saint Mark's Episcopal Church, which was organized in 1858.

The SAR Combined Color Guard led a parade of Compatriots and guests from the Hyatt Regency Hotel to the church and posted the Colors there in a dramatic ceremony. Presiding was President General William C. Gist. Also participating in the solemn program were Chaplain General Rev. Earl-Clayton Grandstaff; Past Chaplains General Rev. Frank MacD. Spindler and Rev. Charles E. Page; Texas Society Chaplain Rev. John B. Stepp; Secretary General Reon G. Hillegass; and Former Presidents General Carl F. Bessent, James R. Calhoun, Charles F. Printz and James R. Westlake.

FPG Carl F. Bessent

As he has for a number of years, FPG Bessent recalled the lives of several departed members, with emphasis on service to the Society and the communities in which they lived. He first singled out those who had been General Officers: Augustus diZerega, Kansas Society – Vice - President General, Genealogist General, Minute Man; Stanley W. Eno, Connecticut – VPG; Gen. Wesley Hamilton, Washington Society – VPG, oldest living General at time of death; Leland Hawkins, California Society – VPG; Asa E. Phillips, Massachusetts Society – VPG, Historian General, Minute Man; Willis G. Tetrick, Jr., West Virginia Society – VPG, Genealogist General, Minute Man; Charles A. Vencil, California Society – VPG, Registrar General, Minute Man; Hugh Wilkinson, Louisiana Society – VPG; and Col. Carroll Wright, Virginia Society – VPG.

In addition to eight Past National Trustees, he spoke about 12 Compatriots who had been a member of our Society for over 60 years, one of them for 72 years. He continued his remarks by reporting on a few who had unusual events in their background: George Cramer, North Carolina Society, who served as a special military liaison officer for President Franklin D. Roosevelt and participated in the meetings between the President and Prime Minister Churchill; Luther Goding, Nebraska Society, who began his Postal Service career on his 21st birthday, retired after 40 years service and died at the age of 111; and John Mowry, Iowa Society, who was an FBI Agent assigned to the Lindberg kidnapping case.

Chaplain General Rev. Grandstaff

SAR Military Records Still Sought

Compatriots will recall that the Spring 1996 Issue of The SAR Magazine featured a news story about the effort just launched to obtain data from SARs who at one time or another served in the United States Armed Forces, Merchant Marine or perhaps even under the flag of a foreign government.

Historian General Bruce B. Butler, D.D.S., sponsor of this massive project, stated at the time that data received would be compiled into an "SAR Military Service Archives" for maintenance at National Headquarters (what a rich source of information for future researchers!).

He reports that the response has been excellent, but that there are probably still thousands yet to be received. HAVE YOU SENT YOURS? If not – then refer back to page 20 of the Spring Issue, fill in the form's details and mail to him at 3206 Napoleon Avenue, New Orleans, LA 70126-5122. A response by September 15 will be most helpful.

Historian General Butler states that the first form came from Illinois Society Compatriot Clarence H. Vittioe, who served as a Marine in World War II and Korea. Since then, hundreds of others have been received from 46 states and the District of Columbia. None reflected duty in WWI; the majority showed duty in WWII, Korea and Vietnam. All branches of the service are included. Ranks attained range from private and seaman to general and admiral, with the highest possessed by Lt. Gen. Herman Nickerson, USMC (Ret.), now a resident of North Carolina.

Singled out for special kudos is Jack Carmichael, Secretary of the Indiana Society's Continental Chapter. He sent photocopies of the form to every member for completion. At last report, he had received over 20 for forwarding to the Historian General.

Compatriot Butler emphasizes that it is important to enclose a copy of your Separation Papers (DD214).

Arizona Society

Following his talk before the Palo Verde Chapter April meeting at Mesa, United States Representative Matt Salmon (right) was presented a Certificate of Appreciation by President Ed Boyd. He commented on failure of the media in covering positive activities of the Republican majority, including accomplishments in the areas of child support, water laws and control of PAC money.

Arkansas Society

Bernard Barber (left), who served as Society President from 1982 to 1986, was presented a plaque during the group's Annual Meeting naming him President Emeritus. Doing the honors was Immediate Past President Duane E. Vandenburg. Compatriot Barber led the Society to its greatest growth in its more than 100-year history, with membership tripling and ten Chapters being organized. He is the first to be so designated.

California Society

One of the highlights of the Society's Annual Meeting during April in Chico was an address by Registrar General Thomas J. Bond (seated). He was introduced by President Ronald D. Risley.

Serving as guest speaker at the April meeting of the Redwood Empire Chapter was Dr. Edward Castillo, Professor of Native American Studies at Sonoma State University. He spoke about the history of American Indians in the North Bay and recounted several interesting events. One of these was the landing of Sir Francis Drake in Northern California. Evidence presented demonstrates that Drake almost certainly landed in Sonoma County, probably Bodega Bay.

The history of money was the topic of an enlightening talk by Compatriot Ed Fulwider during the April meeting of his Thomas Jefferson Chapter at Oakland. A retiree from the United States Mint after 22 years of service, he stated that the first paper money in North America appeared in 1658 as a French promissory note on playing cards. The standard coinage used in America before the Revolutionary War were coins from England, Spain, France, Holland and the 13 Colonies. The United States began striking coins in 1792.

The Battleship USS Texas was the subject of a talk given during the May meeting of the San Fernando Valley Chapter by Compatriot James C. McHargue. The sole surviving warship of both World Wars, she recently underwent an extensive $35-million renovation.

The featured speaker at the April meeting of the Coachella Chapter was Mitchell Paige (right), a recipient of the Congressional Medal of Honor as the result of heroic action during World War II. He was offered a Certificate of Appreciation for his patriotic community service by President J. Karl Van Bibber, Jr.

Connecticut Society

Its purpose is to teach both youths and adults about the history and ideals of the American Revolution.

Delaware Society

Highlighting the Society's Annual Meeting in April was awarding of the Gold Good Citizenship Medal to Delaware Governor Thomas Carper. He was recognized for meritorious service to the nation, including three military tours of duty in Vietnam, five terms in the United States

House of Representatives, and leadership as Governor. His keynote address provided details on the welfare reform program he formulated, entitled "A Better Choice", which is aimed at encouraging adults to help grade school children learn to read.

William H. Willis was installed as President of the newly organized Caesar Rodney Chapter during the Society's Annual Meeting; this is the fourth Chapter to be formed in the last three years. Palm Beach Chapter President David G. Snyder (left) had the unique distinction recently of presenting the Heroism Medal to a law enforcement officer and his horse — probably a first in the SAR! Accepting the award for the pair was Palm Beach County Deputy Sheriff Chris Myers, who with "Marco Polo" saved the life of a teenage girl in danger of drowning at Lake Worth Beach. Compatriot Snyder gave Marco a bag of carrots, too.

At the Society's Annual Meeting, Former President General James R. Westlake (right), Chairman of the Patriot Medal Committee, was pleased to offer the coveted Patriot Medal to Jack Bozeman (left), outgoing President, and Robert F. Galer, a Past President serving as Vice-President General for the South Atlantic District.

Over 80 Compatriots and guests were on hand for the Annual President's Day Luncheon staged by the Atlanta Chapter in mid-February. John Scott Chapter. This was accomplished at the Chapter's regular dinner meeting at the college. Doing the honors were Awards Chairman Billy Singer (left) and President Jack Horner.

SUMMER 1996

Could this be a first in the SAR? This past year the Capt. John Scott Chapter staged competitions for both the Joseph S. Rumbaugh Historical Oration Contest and the Knight Essay Contest. When judges made their final selections, two young women enrolled in the local Air Force JROTC Unit were selected as winners. While there they participated in grave marking ceremonies at the Frankfort Cemetery with several Society officers (from left): President James W. Diamond, Chaplain Rev. F.B. Earlier this year Louisville-Thruston Chapter Secretary Dan Allen presented the Heroism Medal to Napoleon "Sonny" Robinson, a driver who wrestled a gun away from a man attempting to hold up his bus while traveling to a local school. This was the second such presentation made in the Chapter's history.

Named on this monument adjacent to the flag pole are 29 Patriots buried within this site. Upright marble stones identify two Colonels from the Old Camden District.

General Thomas Sumter Chapter SARs
Proud Of Efforts To Honor Patriots

The South Carolina Society's General Thomas Sumter Chapter is encouraging Compatriots visiting the Camden area to make a stop at the historic Presbyterian Burial Grounds. There they will see impressive memorials recognizing Patriots interred there.

One area is devoted to markers identifying Patriots of the Old Camden District. The first one was unveiled in 1994 by United States Senator Strom Thurmond, a member of the South Carolina Society; 20 such stones are now in place. Those of upright marble designate men who died during the Revolutionary War, while flat ones point out those who died following the conflict.

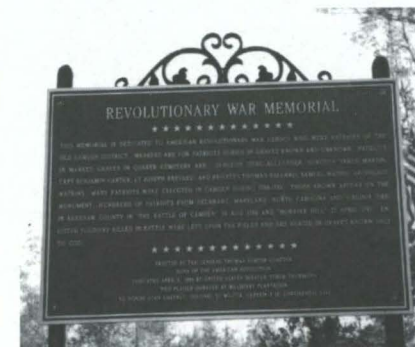

In addition to the individual markers is a large monument that is embedded in the ground adjacent to a flag pole. It bears the inscription: "Dedicated to the Revolutionary War Patriots buried on this site who lie in graves some known and others known only to God." Listed by name and military unit are five South Carolina Militiamen executed at Camden, 13 Continentals from various colonies killed in action in Kershaw County and 11 Camden Patriots who served in the South Carolina Militia, Continental Line or Rangers.

A handsome bronze plaque, erected by the Chapter, states: "This memorial is dedicated to American Revolutionary War heroes who were Patriots of the Old Camden District. Markers are for Patriots buried in graves known and unknown. Patriots in marked graves in Quaker Cemetery are: Surgeon Isaac Alexander, Surgeon James Martin, Capt. Benjamin Carter, Lt. Joseph Brevard, and Privates Thomas Ballard, Samuel Mathis, Archelaus Watkins. Many Patriots were executed in Camden during 1780-1781." Those known appear on the monument. Hundreds of Patriots from Delaware, Maryland, North Carolina and Virginia died in Kershaw County in "The Battle of Camden" August 16, 1780, and "Hobkirk Hill" April 25, 1781. Enlisted soldiers killed in battle were left upon the fields and are buried in graves known only to God.

Placed strategically about the grounds are SAR emblems, while at the entrance walkway is a stone with the inscription "The American Revolutionary War 1775-1783." The Betsy Ross Flag flies atop the flagpole. Plans call for erecting a brick wall.

The Burial Grounds is easily accessible. Exit I-20 at US 521 to enter Camden. In less than two miles turn left on Meeting Street opposite "Historic Camden." Travel one block.

This bronze plaque, erected by the General Thomas Sumter Chapter, is dedicated to Patriots of the Old Camden District.

Battle of Guilford Courthouse Commemorated By State Societies

By Thomas N. Clark, President North Carolina Society

To the ancient tunes of the American Revolution – played by a five-member fife and drum corps – a processional made up of a polished color guard, SAR and DAR units and uniformed flagbearers marched on March 15th to the equestrian statue of General Nathanael Greene at the site of the Battle of Guilford Courthouse. Their purpose was to mark this significant engagement's 215th anniversary near Greensboro, North Carolina. Sponsoring the event was the North Carolina Society.

Preceding the solemn wreath laying ceremony, artillery salutes were fired by uniformed Guilford Militiamen using six-pounder cannons located at the three American Battle-lines along which similar monuments are placed honoring the Delaware, Maryland and Virginia Continentals and the militiamen of North Carolina and Virginia to the locations of their engagements with Lord Cornwallis' Regiments and Lt. Col. Banastre Tarlton's Cavalry Legion. Salutes by the six-pounders were fired at ten-minute intervals from 12:30p.m. to 3:30p.m., reverberating throughout the Guilford Courthouse Battlefield National Park.

Battle Led To End Of War

The Battle of Guilford Courthouse was fought on March 15, 1781. It was one of the most significant battles of the Revolutionary War leading, along with the battles at Kings Mountain and Cowpens, to the end of the Southern Campaign of the South. The commanding general of the 4,143 American force was General Nathanael Greene of Rhode Island. The British Forces under Lord Cornwallis totaled 1,376, which included the dreaded cavalry Legion.

The American Army made a stubborn stand against the invading well-trained British units for two hours of intense fighting, with Greene then retreating with his force intact. Greene's tactical retreat was part of a strategy which had been devised by Washington early in the Revolution to avoid further action which might bring about a full, massive defeat. Companion parts of the general defensive strategy was to run before the enemy while employing harassing tactics and, in a static situation, to have defense in depth in which successive lines of riflemen fired and then withdrew. The whole strategy in the preceding months had been employed successfully by Greene and Daniel Morgan, pulling Cornwallis farther from his supply bases and crippling his Loyalist forces at Kings Mountain and his regulars at Cowpens.

Heavy Cost To The British

For the British, Guilford Courthouse was a pyrrhic victory. They won the field, but at a cost of casualties amounting to one-fourth of their force. Conversely, Greene lost only six percent of his army.

The North Carolina Society's Nathanael Greene Chapter Fife and Drum Corps participated in the anniversary festivities. Here they are retiring from the statue of Greene located in the area.

Cornwallis reached his supply ships at Wilmington, but feeling unsafe, moved northward into Virginia where on October 19, 1781 he surrendered to General George Washington at Yorktown. Historians agree: "The victory was won at Guilford, but the surrender was at Yorktown."

Variety Of Program Participants

Wearing uniforms of the American Revolution continental and militia forces,

The Oak Ridge Military Academy Color Guard led the procession to where the ceremonies were to be held. In the immediate background were (from left): Thomas Baker, Guilford Courthouse Historian; Paul M. Frantz, Virginia Society Compatriot serving as Chairman of the NSSAR Historic Sites and Celebrations Committee; and Thomas N. Clark, President of the North Carolina Society.

the Nathanael Greene Fife and Drum Corps and the Oak Ridge Military Academy Color Guard performed for the opening ceremony. Leading the program were: Dr. Charles E. Page, Past Chaplain General; Mrs. Thomas N. Clark, North Carolina DAR Historian; Thomas Baker, Guilford Courthouse Military Park Historian; and NCSSAR President Thomas N. Clark.

Wreaths and honors were presented at the imposing Nathanael Greene Statue. Each unit, escorted by uniformed flagbearers, honored the memory of Patriots of the various military units who participated in the battle.

Representing the National Society and honoring the American forces under the command of General Greene, was Col. Paul M. Frantz, Chairman of the Historic Sites and Celebrations Committee. Four State Societies participated: North Carolina – President Thomas N. Clark honored the North Carolina Militia; Ohio Society – John Kauff honored the Continental Regulars; Virginia Society – Immediate Past President Donald E. Dye, Jr. honored the Virginia Militia; and West Virginia Society – Secretary George A. Vaughn honored Huger's Brigade of Virginia Continentals. Four SAR Chapters presented wreaths: The Nathanael Greene Chapter, host for the event – President Hollis B. Cahoon honored General Nathanael Greene; The Alamance Battleground Chapter – President Robert B. Day honored the Orange County NC Militia; Dan River Chapter (VA) – Past President Larry Aaron honored Col. William Washington's Dragoons; The Fincastle Resolutions Chapter (VA) – Cranston Williams, Jr. honored "Light Horse Harry" Lee's Legion.

Also participating in the event were five DAR Units: Col. Arthur Forbis Chapter – Mrs. Billy E. Holland, Regent, honored Col. Arthur Forbis of the Guilford Militia who was killed at the Battle of Guilford Courthouse; Guilford Battle Chapter – Mrs. E. P. Pearce, Jr., Registrar, also honored General Greene; Rachel Caldwell Chapter – Ms. Mary Katherine Nicholson, Regent, honored the women Patriots of Guilford; The Battle of Alamance Chapter, Regent, Mrs. Charles E. Page, honored the American Cavalry; and the West Virginia Society – Mrs. John Kauff honored the Williams' Delaware and Maryland Brigade.

By Way Of Background

On February 13, 1911, the Congress of the United States passed an act "To provide for the erection of a monument to commemorate the battle of Guilford Courthouse, North Carolina and in memory of Major-General Nathanael Greene and the officers and soldiers of the Continental Army who participated with him in the battle..." The commission awarded the contract to Francis H. Packer, a student of Augustus Saint-Gaudens, the American realist. The present monument of General Greene was unveiled on July 3, 1915.

The Oak Ridge Military Academy Color Guard performed before the statue of Nathanael Greene. The unit hails from Greensboro, North Carolina.

Guilford Courthouse was the first Revolutionary Battlefield recognized as a National Military Park. On March 2, 1917, the Congress established "...a national military park at the battlefield of Guilford Courthouse." Initially, the Secretary of War supervised and directed the affairs of the park. The Executive order of July 29, 1933, transferred the 220 acre park from the War Department to the Department of the Interior.

Dressed in rustic Revolutionary War uniforms, the Fife and Drum Corps of the Nathanael Green Chapter performed throughout the dramatic ceremonies at Guilford Courthouse.

President General Appoints Committees

When President General Reon G. Hillegass, Jr. recently announced his appointments to National Committees, he revealed the creation of 14 "Boards" designed to group together those that have related functions. He explained that each Board has a Coordinator whose responsibility it is to serve as liaison between those Committees making up his particular Board and the Executive Committee.

"Based on my years of experience with committee work, including several terms on the Executive Committee," he commented, "it is evident the establishment of this structure will greatly improve communications all up and down the lines of authority. Since we now have over 60 diverse Committees - all with important objectives

- I want to make sure that each has access to the Executive Committee as needed to get its job done. The Coordinators will better provide that access."

Committee Chairmen are requested to report any errors in the listings that follow to Executive Director Robert A. Lentz at National Headquarters. Names added will be reported in future issues.
